Please write a review (no more than 3 pages) of the book you've chosen.

In your review, be sure to discuss the following points:

- The author's central views on Reiki ... for instance: Do they hold strongly to Reiki traditions or are they innovative? Are they mostly focused on the mystical, emotional, or physical aspects of healing? Give examples.

- A theme, statement, or teaching the author holds that sparked an interest for you. How will you explore that?

- A theme, statement, or teaching the author holds that you have a different perspective on. What is your view?

- Name something you wish the author had covered or discussed more in depth. Why?
